NCITD International Trade Scholarship Program: 2010-2011

In recognition of the responsibility of NCITD to promote and provide international trade education, NCITD has established a yearly scholarship for students of international trade.

Scholarships awarded (minimum $1,000) will be paid directly to the institution, in the name of the awardee(s).

Awardee(s) will also receive a one-year NCITD membership and will be welcome to attend monthly meetings (if not currently a member).

Criteria for Eligibility:

- Applicants must have at least “junior” status for 2010-2011 in an accredited U.S. college or university with at least a 3.0 Grade Point Average or equivalent “B” average.
- Applicants must be currently enrolled and pursuing either an undergraduate or graduate degree in International Trade studies, such as political science, international relations, economics, international business, international law, international finance, etc. (including study abroad programs affiliated with a U.S. university).

Application Process:

Applicants must complete and submit:

- The NCITD Scholarship application form;
- A copy of the most current transcript from the college or university;
- A letter of recommendation from a sponsoring NCITD member; or from a work colleague or professor;
- A brief (2500 words or less) narrative from the applicant explaining his/her interest in international trade and why the applicant should be awarded this scholarship, including merit and financial need.

Criteria for Selection, in Order of Importance:

- Proven interest or experience in international trade, e.g., education, work or volunteering;
- Current academic standing and performance, including honors and extracurricular activities;
- Strength of the narrative submission and recommendations by NCITD member, professor or work colleague;
- Preference will be given to candidates sponsored by employees of NCITD member firms.

Selection Process:

- For consideration for the 2010-2011 academic terms, all applications must be submitted by April 15, 2010.
- The Application, transcript, recommendation and narrative essay should be mailed in a single package OR emailed to:
